Prepare a salad, a dessert and one or two other tasty dishes, when Mother is out; hide them from her. Assure her that certain delicacies have been taken care of for her day. And then bring these mysterious tasties out of their hiding places as she sits down to dinner. Just a little thing, but how mothers will appreciate it from those children fortunate enough to be at home this year. This Mother's Day is a sad one to many mothers. Do your part to cheer her by preparing food surprises such as the following:

Spinach Ring

1 box (14 oz.) quick-frozen spinach
1 cup boiling water, salted
Dash of pepper
½ teaspoon salt
¾ teaspoon minced onion
2 tablespoons melted butter
1 egg, slightly beaten

Drop frozen spinach into briskly boiling salted water. Bring again to a boil and boil 4 to 6 minutes, or until just tender, separating leaves with fork during cooking. Drain and chop. Add seasonings, butter, and egg and mix very thoroughly. Turn into small well-greased ring mold. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (375° F.) about 30 minutes, or until firm. Unmold. Fill center with mushroom sauce, creamed mushrooms, celery or carrots, or surround with fried scallops. Serves 6, at a cost of 1½ points per serving. Fortunately, quick-frozen vegetables, which eliminate hours spent in sorting, cleaning and other preparation, have a substantial point advantage on a per serving basis. For example, a twelve-ounce package of quick-frozen peas costs ten points and gives four average servings, while a 20-oz. can of peas giving four average servings costs 16 ration points. The eight ounces of liquid in the average can costs six extra points. The reason for the present lower point values for quick-frozen foods is that in proportion to normal consumption, more quick-frozen foods are available than canned goods, and ration values are based on availability.

Gnocchi with Spanish Sauce

1 cup milk
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup Wheat-Meal
¾ cup grated American Cheese
1 egg, well beaten
Paprika

Heat milk in saucepan. Add salt and Wheat-Meal gradually, stirring constantly. Bring to a boil and cook and stir 3 minutes. Remove from heat. Add ¼ cup cheese and egg and blend. Pour into shallow pan. Chill. Place spoonfuls or 2-inch squares in shallow baking dish and cover with Spanish Sauce. Sprinkle with remaining cheese and paprika. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 15 minutes, or until cheese is melted. Serves 4 to 6.

Spanish Sauce

1½ tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
4 tablespoons diced celery
1½ cups canned tomatoes
¼ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper

Melt butter in skillet; add onion, green pepper, and celery and cook slowly until onion is golden brown. Add tomatoes and seasonings. Cook slowly until sauce is thickened. Makes about 1 cup sauce.

Jellied Orange-Meat Salad

1 cup boiling water
1 package lemon flavored gelatin
½ cup orange juice
¼ cup lemon juice
1 tablespoon minced onion
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ cups cooked and diced cold meat (veal, chicken, beef, pork)
½ cup diced celery
2 tablespoons French dressing
Lettuce or other greens

Add boiling water to the gelatin. Add the fruit juices, onion and salt and cool until beginning to set. Combine diced meat, celery, and French dressing and add to the gelatin mixture. Pour into 6 wet individual molds and chill until set. Unmold on individual beds of greens. Serve with French dressing or with mayonnaise. Serves 6.

Peanut Brittle Rennet-Custard

1 rennet tablet
1 tablespoon cold water
1 pint milk, not canned
½ to ⅓ cup finely rolled peanut brittle
⅛ teaspoon vanilla

Make rennet-custard according to directions in package, adding finely rolled peanut brittle to milk. Chill. When ready to serve, garnish with whipped cream and berries or coarsely broken up brittle.

Sweet Dreams Brew

Use a rounded tablespoon of all purpose grind decaffeinated coffee to every cup (½ pint) water. Make by boiled or percolated method. (If percolated, "perk" 15 to 20 minutes, slowly and gently, or longer than ordinary coffee, to bring out its full, rich coffee flavor.) Have ready a pot of hot milk. When serving, pour milk and coffee together into cup in equal amounts. Piping hot decaffeinated coffee is a good antidote for wartime nerves. Even a demi tasse will do wonders in helping everyone to relax. If you use a vacuum coffee pot, leave the coffee in the upper compartment for 5 or 6 minutes instead of the usual 3 or 4 to get the maximum strength.

Fresh Instead of Canned

Here we are in the month of May, moving along into the season of constantly greater variety and greater quantity of fresh fruits and vegetables. By the same token, of course, we're lucky to have a bigger opportunity each week to take home more fresh-from-the-field foods, in place of canned goods. This means not only delicious meals, but also direct, personal cooperation with Government requests. When you shop early this week, economize on Blue Stamps and choose at least one additional fresh vegetable or fruit—at Safeway, where you know the produce is farm-fresh, top-quality!

Ways with Fresh Produce

Fresh vegetables and plenty of them keep the nutritional score of your menus high. Vitamins and minerals are really important to the diet now. And fresh vegetables are rich storehouses of these food essentials.

To conserve and profit by these necessary food elements, serve vegetables uncooked in salads or cook them quickly. Vary them too, for appetite interest. Even the seemingly unglamorous vegetables can be turned into dishes of delight.

. . . Beets in Deviled Sauce—Make a thickened sauce using 2 tbsps. shortening, 2 tbsps. flour, ¾ cup beet liquid, and salt and pepper to taste. When sauce is slightly thickened, add 1 tbsp. sugar and ¼ cup vinegar and bring to boil. Pour over hot, sliced beets.

. . . Raw Beet Salad—Combine 2 cups coarsely shredded, raw beets and 1 cup chopped peanuts with a bit of lemon juice and salad dressing.

. . . Cabbage Chop Suey—Toss together 3 cups shredded cabbage, 1 cup sliced celery and leaves, 1 large, sliced onion, ¾ cup green pepper and salt and pepper to taste. Fry covered in a small amount of shortening 5 to 10 minutes, no longer, stirring occasionally.

. . . Spicy Cabbage Slaw—Grind cabbage and mix with vinegar, salt, pepper and sugar. For variety, add equal parts ground carrots and cauliflower, mix with salad dressing, press into teacup to mold, and unmold on cabbage leaves.

. . . Scalloped Carrots—Scallop sliced carrots alone or with potatoes and/or onions. Top with cheese if you like.

. . . Pioneer-Style Baked Onions—Bake large onions, whole with outer skins and all just as you would potatoes. Serve by breaking open, and seasoning with salt, pepper, and butter.

. . . Parsnip-Apple Casserole—Arrange alternate layers of cooked, mashed parsnips and sweetened applesauce. Sprinkle each layer with a bit of brown sugar, nutmeg and lemon juice. Top with buttered bread crumbs and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 30 minutes. Serve as a vegetable.

. . . Breaded Turnip or Rutabaga Patties—Boil turnips or rutabagas, mash, season and form into patties. Roll in bread crumbs and fry quickly in hot shortening.

READING & WRITING

BY Edwin Seaver AND Robin McKown

WHEN Colonel Darryl Zanuck was in a plane returning from Africa, where he had been since the first days of the American occupation, a fellow passenger sitting next to him remarked, "I understand you've just come back from the Tunis Front. How was it?"

DARRYL ZANUCK

Zanuck made his reply in two words: "Good show," he said. "Good show" was an expression he had learned from the English in Algiers—a term which they use for every out-of-the-ordinary event, from a kitchen wagon that's broken down, to a particularly bloody battle. The Yanks have been quick to pick up this bit of British understatement.

Colonel Zanuck in private life (which he has very little of nowadays) is head of the Twentieth Century Fox Studios. Since Pearl Harbor, he has flown over 100,000 miles in the services of the United States Army Signal Corps, including four flights across the Atlantic, two flights to the Aleutian Islands, and the expedition to North Africa, where he went as head of the unit sent to film America's fight there. Now he has authored "Tunis Expedition," the first book out on the battle for North Africa being waged by the American Expeditionary Force.

* * *

On one occasion, Colonel Zanuck tells, he unwittingly slept all night in a hotel while two unexploded 500-pound bombs lodged next door. Not only the hotel but the whole surrounding block had been evacuated, and the next morning when the gendarme in charge saw Zanuck wandering sleepily out of the front door, he seemed unsure whether to arrest him or give him the Croix de Guerre for bravery.

* * *

The official story of the British Commandos will shortly be told in a book titled "Combined Operations," which is to be distributed by the Book-of-the-Month Club in June, along with "Winter's Tales" by the Danish Baroness, Isak Dinesen. "Combined Operations" will be published anonymously, though the author is Hilary St. George Saunders who also wrote "Battle for Britain" and "Bomber Command," two other books concerning the British phase of the war. Lord Louis Mountbatten, chief of Britain's Combined Operations, will write the preface.

* * *

Virginia Paxton, wife of an American correspondent, tells some amusing incidents about their early experiences in South America in her book, "Penthouse in Bogota." On their first morning her husband consulted his Spanish dictionary and then proudly announced he was equipped to order breakfast. He gave his order to the waiter, who looked bewildered and then vanished. Eventually the manager came to their rescue. It seemed that the young man, instead of requesting fried eggs, as he had thought, had been demanding that the waiter bring him two orders of "fried Thursdays."

OVER THE TOP FOR VICTORY with UNITED STATES WAR BONDS-STAMPS

Book Three Comes Your Way By Mail

Mail centers have been announced by the Office of Price Administration for the distribution on the Pacific coast in June of War Ration Book Three, which provides new stamps to replace those running out in existing books.

Approximately 13 million copies of the replacement book will be distributed by mail to residents of California, Arizona, Nevada, Oregon and Washington from the following state centers: San Francisco, Phoenix, Reno, Portland and Seattle.

Regional OPA officials emphasized that Book Number Three is a replacement book and that at the present time no further rationing programs are contemplated. Book Three combines "unit" stamps—already familiar under the sugar, coffee and shoe programs—and "point" stamps, now used for canned goods, meats and fats.

OPA officials explained that a simple post-card application will be the method of distribution of Book Three under the plan. Application forms, good for a single person or an entire family, will be dropped in every mail box by postmen between May 20 and June 5. The head of the house will fill out the cards, which are preaddressed to OPA mail centers, for the entire family and post them between June 1 and June 10. OPA mail centers will begin sending out the books late in June.

Baubles For Barter Campaign Now Under Way In D. C.

Reb's Upholstery Shop Is Collection Center

"Lady, make a note of this—those baubles (junk jewelry) reposing in some box, discarded and forgotten, might well save a countryman's life, down in the South Pacific where the going's tough."

This was the message phrased, this week, by R. E. Bennett, proprietor of Reb's Upholstery shop, 26 Hillcrest drive, in his campaign to collect a nice big donation from Daly City of "baubles for buddies to barter." This important drive is sponsored by the San Francisco League for Servicemen, which ships the beads, necklaces, earrings, brooches, old compacts, rings, lipstick holders off to the combat areas where there are native populations which "go" for this sort of article.

Natives, who wouldn't think of working for mere money, will dig foxholes, carry wounded, pack munitions and supplies through the jungles for junk jewelry.

And that, lady, is where you come in! Won't you take your discarded costume jewelry up to Reb's today. That's the local collection depot, 26 Hillcrest drive, conveniently located in the shopping area.
